

Bios for Brook & Wruble

Cara Brook is a Deputy Prosecuting Attorney with the St. Joseph County Prosecutor's Office, Special Victims Unit. Prior to joining the prosecutor's office, she practiced labor and employment law at Baker & Daniels LLP. Cara completed her undergraduate education at Indiana University and obtained her law degree from the University of Miami School of Law.

Stan Wruble is a criminal defense attorney and part-time public defender in St. Joseph County. He has worked at large & small firms in South Bend and Chicago and now maintains his own practice. Stan received his bachelor's degree from Valparaiso University and his J.D. from University of Notre Dame Law School.