

Laderer, Simeri & Agostino

Lewis C. Laderer received his undergraduate education at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio. He then attended The University of Notre Dame Law School and received his Juris Doctor in 1968. Lew was admitted to practice law in the State of Indiana in 1968. Lew became a Certified Indiana Civil Mediator in 1992. Lew also practices law in the areas of Commercial Banking Law and Litigation, Mediation and Arbitration, Creditors Rights, Corporate and Business Law.

Joseph V. Simeri received his undergraduate education at The University of Notre Dame. He then attended Northwestern University Law School and received his Juris Doctor in 1964. Joe was admitted to the Indiana State Bar in 1964. His current practice exclusively focuses on Arbitration and Mediation.

Peter J. Agostino received his law degree from the University of Notre Dame Law School, graduating cum laude in 1986. Pete also received his B.B.A. in accounting from the University of Notre Dame, graduating magna cum laude in 1983. Pete also practices in the areas of municipal law, personal injury litigation, employment litigation, products liability litigation, and civil rights litigation. He is admitted to practice in Indiana, as well as before the United States District Courts for the Northern and Southern Districts of Indiana and the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. Pete serves the people of St. Joseph County by representing the County in employment matters.